Challenges for Midwifery and Treating Caesarean Section Patients with a High BMI

Date: Wednesday 26th June 2013 (5.30pm – 8.00pm)

Venue: Ashfield House, Ashfield Park Drive, Standish Wigan WN6 0EQ
Tel: 01257 473500

Agenda

5.30pm   Exhibition and Buffet

6.00pm   Welcome and introductions by Chair Dr Sean Burns (Consultant)

6.05 pm- Accountability and Midwifery
Lesley Gaskell- RCM Regional Officer
• Communication and documentation
• Accountability and record keeping to withstand scrutiny

6.30 pm - The challenges faced by Infection Control - Published C-section study
Diane Wilkinson- Infection Control Matron
• Background to study and infection control issues in the care of C-section
• Swabbing – how / when / why

7.10 pm- Presentation on Published C-section study – a Tissue Viability Perspective
Lindsey Bullough- Tissue Viability
• Background to study and caring for an abdominal incision
• The process of application and follow-up

7.45 pm- PICO Single Use NPWT - an innovation in treating Caesarean Sections
Paul Davy- Business Manager
• Mode of Action of PICO
• PICO – the effect on the management of Caesarean Sections

8pm- Close

Areas which may wish to attend:
Obstetrics & Gynaecology / Maternity (Ante and Post-natal), Infection Control.

Level:
Midwifery Staff Hospital and Community based Consultants and Specialist Registrars
Infection Control
Clinicians with an interest and involvement with patients who have Caesarean Sections

To book a place, please call:
Paul Davy, Business Manager, Smith & Nephew
07778 321590 or e-mail: paul.davy@smith-nephew.com